- First time on CD for this influential series of rare Sun Rockabilly LPs first released in the 1980s.
- Features 28 original recordings by some of the Sun label's most sought-after artists.
- Includes lesser-heard alternate takes cherry-picked by top Rock'n'Roll DJ Ding Dong.
- Eye-catching cover art recollects the LPs' original wild sleeves; 8-page booklet houses the DJ's original liner notes.

'When these were first issued, a flood of new rockabilly classics was unleashed and they've remained classics to this day.' Mark Lamarr

In the mid-eighties, the legendary French Rock'n'Roll DJ Ding Dong was allowed access to the Sun Records vaults whereupon he unearthed countless gems, including many previously unheard and alternate versions of classic recordings. He then compiled these tracks into a series of seminal albums, and in so doing introduced a new generation of music lovers to the Sun sound and created a new wave of Rockabilly fans.

Up until now these albums have only ever been available on vinyl, original copies of which are now almost impossible to find. Now more than twenty years on, these double CD reissues will give fans the chance to hear these tracks again.

This first volume comprises the Rabbit Action and Rock-A-Billy Blues albums and features Sun stalwarts Carl Perkins ('Put Your Cat Clothes On'), Junior Thompson ('Rock Me Baby'), Gene Simmons ('Pop And Mama'), Jack Earls ('Crowdad Hole'), Charlie Feathers ('Bottle To The Baby') and Luke McDaniel ('Go Ahead Baby').
